INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS

Achieving Curriculum Excellence 'ACE' Scholarship:

The ACE Program has been established to cater for students aspiring to reach high academic standards with the ultimate aim of successful university graduation.

The student selected for an ACE Scholarship will be expected to extend themselves; take on added responsibilities; and positively contribute to the everyday life of Swan View Senior High School

FAME Academy Scholarship:

The Swan View Specialised Drama Program is a Department of Education specialist program for students who show particular talent and interest in drama and related careers.

Please Note: To gain entry into the FAME Academy students will need to successfully complete the audition process which is held at the Primary Schools during Term 1. Details will be communicated via your child's Primary School.

Citizenship Scholarship:

The student selected for a Citizenship Scholarship will be expected to demonstrate leadership potential an take on other added responsibilities.

They will adhere to the school values 'DARE' Diligent, Accountable, Respectful, Extraordinary; and positively contribute to the everyday life of Swan View Senior High School.

Elite Basketball Scholarship:

The Basketball program gives students in Years 7-10 the chance to pursue their passion for Basketball and aims to develop skills, game understanding and tactical knowledge. This class is offered as a timetabled elective and allows the opportunity for students to be involved in day competitions and excursions.

The program provides students with individual fundamental coaching combined with fitness training, testing and completing a junior referee course. Students will have the ability to demonstrate and develop strong teamwork and leadership skills which are essential for higher level and elite competition.

To be eligible for the program students must attend tryouts during Term 1, details will be communicated via your child's Primary School. Students will be held to behaviour and engagement standards to remain in the program.

Smith Family Scholarship:

The Smith Family Scholarship provides financial assistance for families specifically for education costs. Application forms are available from the school office.

Families need to meet the eligibility criteria below:

- Attend a Smith Family partner primary school.
- Be Centrelink supported (HCC/PCC), if this criteria is not met and the school is aware of financial difficulty at the discretion of the Smith Family we may be able to offer scholarship support.
- Have children attending a Smith Family partnership school.
- Children display regular attendance at school (minimum of 90% for recruitment).

Please note: Students can receive scholarship support throughout their education and apply for a tertiary scholarship (up to 4 years of support) after year 12 if moving into University or Polytechnic West (Certificate III and above).
