PRINCIPAL'S ADDRESS

This year fifty six students are celebrating the completion of five years of secondary schooling and twelve years of education in total.

Each group of graduating students leaves behind their own stamp on our school. Your particular stamp has been most significant.

- This group has achieved a graduation rate of 100%
- This group increased their average attendance rate from 78% in Semester 2011 to an amazing increase by 11% to 89% by the end of term 1 this year.
- This group has achieved a significant increase of Certificate 2 Completion or higher from a result of 9% last year to in excess of 50% this year.
- This group has acted as significant role models across our entire school community which has led to improved academic and non academic performance across all year levels.

Swan View SHS, represented by its teaching and non teaching staff, parents and caregivers, local community, tertiary, business and industry partners have all worked tirelessly to provide the knowledge, skills and experiences that will prepare you for the opportunities that will become available in the future and throughout the rest of your lives.

We often talk about the future and we plan for it, but we don't really know what it clearly holds and we can't define it clearly for each of you.

That will be your task. Our task, during your schooling, was to provide you with a sound, broad based education which would enable you to demonstrate achievements and success that can be measured competitively any where in the world.

We aimed to build within each of you a capacity to grow strong and be strong, to know and value what is a wise choice, to work hard and be productive, to be good community contributors, to value family and friends, to be sensitive and show empathy, to develop the capacity to see the big picture at all times and not get lost along the track of your individual journey by identifying and avoiding the many distracters that may impede you along the way. And so with this big picture in mind, reflect on and remember what is most important.

As our school motto states, to dream, believe and achieve, to enable each of you to live life to the full is most important. And so as you continue to dream, believe, it is your actions in the end that will truly enable you to achieve and allow your individual life stories to emerge. A story which will become your story and your own history of your life. Your actions are proof of sincerity. Actions show respect. Actions can indicate a commitment and tolerance. Our actions are what help define us as individuals and human beings. Actions determine success or failure. Actions are so much stronger than words.

It is through your actions past, while in the classroom, the school grounds, the school assembly, your home, in the workplace, with your friends and within the local community and those actions yet to pass in the future, that you will be judged and remembered. It is clearly now, and always has been, your choice to make.

Will you choose to make choices and decisions that are wise and respectful of others? Our choices so often, affect those around us, those that we care most about. I am very confident Year Twelves that you will earn respect through sound actions as Swan View SHS has prepared you extremely well.

Personal attributes and qualities make each of you who you are. Empathy, respect, responsibility, consideration, preparedness and effort. It is when as an individual we apply these attributes and qualities to each and every aspect of our lives that we truly commit to being the very best that we are capable of. Your teachers and your parents have worked hard to instil these values within you it's now up to you to acknowledge and reflect these in all that you do.

I must acknowledge this year's year 12 student representative council members:

- Alexander Abbot
- Megan Bradshaw
- Dehnym Doutch
- Aoife Walsh
- Caitlyn Warner

They have all made significant contributions towards improving the educational environment and opportunities for students at swan View SHS. In particular, Swan View SHS's Head Girl Aoife Walsh, has this year proven to be a highly collaborative, intelligent, empathetic and solution oriented leader within our school community.

My special message to the Year 12's:

Is that in life you will make some mistakes, that on reflection you may regret? What is important is that you recognize these mistakes, learn from them, make amends, demonstrate sincerity and take responsibility for your actions. In life, I believe it is most important to be responsible students, daughters, sons, friends, employees and human beings for integrity cannot be purchased. And it is our own integrity that should be valued and guarded most highly.

So, as you prepare to leave the high school life that has been a part of your every week day for 5 years you need to consider what is the difference between school and life? What will change and where do you start? Well, in school, you're taught a lesson and then given a test. This helps you to grow and prepare you for life outside of school. In life, you will often find yourself in a testing situation which ultimately teaches you a lesson. The significant difference being that you will have far less time to prepare for life's lessons when compared to school.

Learn each lesson well with a passion and commitment that will continue to make you proud of your achievements.

I would like to use a quote from Robert F Bennet: "Your life is the sum result of all the choices you make, both consciously and unconsciously. If you can control the process of choosing, you can take control of all aspects of your life. You can find the freedom that comes from being in charge of yourself."

So to the Year 12 Graduating class of 2012:

Believe in yourself and Believe in others
Look for the best in everything and everyone
Be positive and kind, healthy and wise
Make good decisions based on sound judgements
Commit to your family and friends, don't leave it for another time
Be proactive and responsive
Maintain good attitudes and actions
And most importantly be honest to yourself

LEARNING FOR LIVING

Choose to live your life this way and you will find that freedom which comes from being in charge of yourself.

Damian Shuttleworth. Principal.
